

Make Walking Count

Key Walking Route Site visit & questions 18th March 2010, 2:30pm

Come and visit the first completed Key Walking Route at Wanstead in Redbridge. Understand what comprises a Key Walking Route with a specific safety focus.

Borough officers responsible for delivering this Key Walking Route will be on hand to lead the site visit and answer all questions. Share their experiences, knowledge and design solutions and meet fellow borough officers.

Key Walking Routes are a key component of the Mayor of London's ambition to Make Walking Count and deliver a more walkable London where people choose to walk more often more of the time.

Meeting at Wanstead tube station (Central line) at 2:30pm on the 18th March, 2010.
